The DLP rotation program: we launch the European “Distributed Leadership Program” (DLP) in September 2008. The program consists of 4-6 months assignments in several cross-functional areas. Trainees get acquainted with the daily work in those functions as well as manage own projects.

The exact sequence of the rotation is developed individually with you, together based on your skills and career goals. Functional areas include: Logistics, Procurement, Customer Services, Quality Engineering, Finance, Strategic Sourcing and Sales.

What is unique about our DLP rotation program?

We give you the two main differences:

1. We ensure international assignments to all management trainees – that makes our rotation program uniquely international.
2. We give real opportunities and responsibility to young talents: after the DLP, with 2 years experience you will get real management challenges and larger responsibilities than anywhere else.

GEXPRO is the perfect choice for you if:

- You want to achieve results and willing to put effort into your work and personal development;
- You want to be part of a fun international team – we work hard and play even harder...!
- You want to have an international carrier in a Hungary-based, highly professional company.
